CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

1987/1988 MANDATE
COUNCIL FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

A 1. to establish a Council for International Cooperation;

A 2. to undertake a survey of international academic relations at CU;

C 3. to prepare and maintain a database of CU faculty with international academic experience;

C 4. to publish a directory of CU faculty with international academic experience for internal and external distribution;

C 5. to organize faculty-based regional advisory committees on CU's relations with institutions in other countries;

A 6. to sustain the various China initiatives that we have already undertaken;

A 7. to work to obtain external funding for CU's international activities, and in particular to obtain CIDA funding for our NIT linkage;

A 8. to serve as a resource to advise CU faculty on participation in international academic activities;

A 9. to prepare a survey of how international academic relations are handled at other Canadian universities, together with specific recommendations on how CU should proceed;

B 10. to represent CU on and to provincial and national bodies dealing with international academic relations and international development;

A 11. to facilitate reception of international academic delegations at CU;

A 12. to begin a newsletter on international academic activities at CU, probably as a monthly page in the Thursday Report;

A 13. to promote the image of CU as an international institution;

? 14. to serve as a clearinghouse for CU's international correspondence;

B 15. to enumerate and evaluate CU's existing international commitments;

A 16. to advise the Vice-Rector Academic on CU's international academic relations.

August 3, 1987

OFFICE OF THE VICE-RECTOR, ACADEMIC 7141 SHERBROOKE STREET WEST
MONTREAL, QUEBEC H4B 1R6